LECTURE BY THE REY. DR. IVES, -- This learned nd distinguished ecclesiastic, whose perversiou co Catholicism occasioned such great excitement n the religious world, a few years since, will lecure this evening before the Catholic Literary Intitute. His subject is one of the most intense interest, and its discussion will give rise to consid-

Thanksgiving Day,
This is the sweetest holiday of the year. Le galized by executive pronunciamentos, consecrated by custom, hallowed by associations, and en deared by ties of which we need not speak, Thanksgiving Day in Kentucky has attained its most proper recognition.

Happy in the possession of whatever the varied home of plenty could bestow upon us-exultant in the brilliant prospect that the future continnally affords-grateful that amid the storms and passions of politics, there is one secure resort where we can rely upon the justness of talent and genius, we hail this Thanksgiving morn.

The public demonstration in this behalf exceeds that of any previous year. Throughout the land there will be offered up a unison of praise in behalf of those who are so intimately connected with the different enterprises of the day. It is well that this is done, for there has been no greater agent in the diffusion of knowledge, of enterprise, and sagacity. Years have attached sanctity to the day, and the genial greetings, the household blessings, the inspiriting friendships of Thanksgiving, are a sufficient assurance that the fourteenth anniversary of its celebration in Kentucky should be properly regarded. THANKSGIVING PARADE. -- We regret that there will not be a general display of our military to-day .-All of the companies have declined appearing save the National Blues, under the command of Capt. Hawley. These are such excellent aoldiers and so well officered that they are never recreant iu the discharge of any public dnty. The National Blues will attend divine service to-day at the First Presbyteriau church, and afterwards dine at the Louisville Hotel, where, of conrse, they will fare sumptuously.

Marshal Akers, of New Albany, arrested, on Monday last, in Trimble county, a man named Wilson, who was identified as the person who broke iuto Mr. P. M. Garner's house and stole his clothes. Wilson was lodged in the Trimble county jail to awail a requisition from the Governor of Indiana. He is a professional thief, who plies beween here and Cincinnati,

Combs took charge of this work some years since, it was without money or credit, not a single mile of it was fully graded, nor the right of way paid for to any considerable extent. He issued a card a few days after his election, pledguig himself to see that "all the labor per-lormed under his administration was paid for;" and, notwithstanding the recent railroad and money revulsion, we are gratified to learn that he has kept his word. His own means and credit have been fully afforded, and we sincerely hope Latest from Pike's Peak — Plenty of Gold for Those who will Work for It.

We had a visit yesterday afternoon from Mr. J. G. Miller, of Danby, Tompkins county, N. Y., who has just returned from the gold diggings on the South Platte. Mr. Miller had some specimens of the precious ore with him, which are of a fine description. He states that the earnings of the description. He states that the earnings of the members of the Lawrence company, to which he belonged, were from $2 to $5 per day, obtained by pau washings; but that if they had been pro-vided with proper utensils and machinery, they could have realized from $20 to $30 per day. The could have realized from $20 to $30 per day. The amount of gold, Mr. M. thinks, is not so extensive as reported by some, yet there will be a remunerative yield to all who eugage in seeking it. The living at the mines has been excellent, there being plenty of game in the vicinity, which is obtained without much difficulty. The Lawrence company were in camp five months, worked hard, and had no sickness. The climate was delightful, and all had much improved in health. Mr. M. is on his way home, to spread the news among his neighbors, and will return in the spring when he thinks there will be an immense rush to the gold fields. A number of miners would re main on the ground during the winter, and no fears were entertained of unusual suffering.—St.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] Letter from Postmaster Woodruff. Postoffice, Lexington, Kr., November 23, 1853.

Editors Louisville Courier: I notice a commun ation in your paper of this date, from Pleasan Hill, Ky., over the signature of "B. H." A simple statement of the facts is all that I deem necessary to refute the groundless charges made by this gentleman against me.

All mail matter for Pleasant Hill, and all other way offices between Nicholasville and Harrodsburg, Danville and Lancaster, is sent from Louisville, in a separate bag, to Nicholasville, and there put upon its proper course. This Nicholasville bag does not even enter the coor of my office. It is taken by a special mail messenger, from the cars at the Louisville depot, immediately to the depot of the Keatncky Central railroad, ouly calling at my office door for two bags, which I send—one to Nicholasville, and the other to Harrodsburg, and this often before the Louisville mail gets to the office. By this arrangement, my mail matter designed for Nicholasville, and offices beyond, which may be sent to this office by the postmaster at Louisville, must remain here until the next day.

I think if your correspondent had only taken the trouble to make a little inquiry into the matter, before he made a wholesale charge against me, he would have found that all the irregularities on that route have been since the mail has been carried in this close connection by the railread for which I am in no way respectible.

read, for which I am in no way responsible.

As to his other charge, of complaints of the manner in which I discharge the duties of my office, I presume the persons from whom he got his information are about as ignorant of what these duties are, as he has shown himself as to where the fault is of which he complains.

Respectfully, JESSE WOODRUFF, P. M.

Another Overland Mril to the Facific Coast—The Postmaster General's Report—Important Suggestion—Superintendent of Indian Affairs in California. (Special Dispatch to the New York Times.)

(Special Dispatch to the New York Times.)

Washington, Sunday, Nov. 21.

Mr. Appleton, Assistant Secretary, of State has formerly declined to take the editorial charge of the Union newspaper.

A letter from Senator Douglas announces that he will not be here until the 15th of December. Gov. Brown, the Postmaster General, for the purpose of affording the puolic additional overland mail service between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, has issued the order for a weekly overland mail between New Orleans and San Francisco, via San Antonio, Texas, and El Paso. This mail will be carried by the enterprising contractors who for a year and a half have operated the overland line between San Antonio and San Diego, never in a single instance failing to satisfy the utmost demands of the department.

Their agent, under the new arrangement, will take the mail once a week from New Orleans, proceeding thence to Berwick's Bay by railroad, thence to Galveston by steamer, by rail sgain from that port to Columbus, Texas, and thence by express to San Antonio.

be transferred to the Memphis overland line, for conveyance to San Francisco.

By this arrangement, if the Memphis company make their schedule time west of El Paso, New Orleans dates will reach San Francisco always in 24 or 25 days, and the news from the Pacific, by telegraph from New Orleans, will anticipate any other overland communication. There is little doubt that within a year from this time when we shall have a continuous line of railroad from the Northern States to Columbus, Texas, the mails, carried over the San Antonio route, will be delivered in San Francisco in twenty five days from New York. The San Antonio route is, unquestionably, the shortest of any, passes much of the distance through a nice and partially settled country, and is free from obstructions at any and all seasons. The Postmaster General wisely forsees its future advantages, and appreciates its present seasons. The Postmaster General wisely forsees its future advantages, and appreciates its present superiority. The new arrangement goes into effect on the 1st of January.

The reports of the several members of the President's Cabinet will be completed earlier this year than usual. Two of them are now ready for the printer. That from the Postmaster General will be nunsually interesting, in view of the triumphant success of his several great postal enterprises. Gov. Brown had no sooner completed his extensive and substitutial arrangements for the heat sive and substintial arrangements for the hea eve to a union of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts eye to a union of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts by a great overland mail across the continent.—
Nothing deauted by the magnitude of the under taking, he entered upon it with energy, and the result is known to the courty. A letter from London will now reach San Francisco, rez New York and St. Louir, in exactly therty-sex days.

But will Go eru r Brow, stop here and rest upon his lances? He is not the man to stop half way or leave his work unfolshed. I then draw the fair conclusion, from the established premisthe fair conclusion, from 'he established : ald convention.

Democratic Meeting in Jefferson. The Democracy of Jefferson county will hold a meeting at Jeffersontown, on Saturday, the 4th of December, to appoint delegates to the 8th of Jan uary convention. Let there be a full attendance of the sovereigns. Jefferson is entitled to ten votes in the convention, under the Mason rule.

The Baltimore Plug Uglies, etc. Know Nothingism, with its kindred evils, has brought about a terrible state of affairs in the eity of Baltimore. There Plug Uglyism is seen, felt, and known in all its hourid detormity. The degraded, vicious builies belonging to the various Know Nothing clubs have long kept the community in awe, and their violence has paralyzed the arm of the more virtuous and better portion of the American party in that city. Doubtless a majority of the American party in Baltimore are pa triotic meu, but they are powerless for good, while the brutalized ruffians of the party are om-

A very large portion of the American party have formed themselves into clubs, knowu by such names as "I'lug Uglies," "Rip Raps," "Blood Tubs," "Black Snakes," etc. These clubs, for a period of three years, bave lorded it over that city, and their revolvers, brass knucks, and bludgeons, have given to the people their government. Through their instrumentality the emocrats have been disfranchised, and the Know Nothing party have elected all the officers of the government, from the mayor down to the police. Elections in Baltimore have become a farce and a mockery. But these rufhans have sowed the wind, and they are now reaping the whirlwind. The poisoned chalice is presented to their own lips. They have made the officers of the city government, and they are now assassinating those officers .-These assassinations have filled the cup of their iniquities to the brim, and three of the vilest of these ruffians are about to offer up their ignoble lives upon the altar of the violated laws of their country. They didn't kill friendless Democrats that time, but quit the wonted path and slew Know Nothing policemen. To kill a Democrat, has heretofore been but a slight offense, but the killing of the bretheren being begun, is a very serious matter. A writer in Baltimore, to a New York paper, speaking of these recent outrages,

These unparalleled o utrages would never have been heard of but for the impunity which has at-tended previous crimes. Look at our criminal records for the last three months. A chief of the Plug Uglies, named Chapman, enters a drinking saloon, surrounded by his myrmidous, demands drink, and refuses to pay for it. The unfortunate barkeeper remonstrates, and is shot dead by Chapman, who receives three cheers for his atro-cious murder. This man is in Baltimore jail, but scolls at the idea of punishment. Another wretch, actions at the disaction purishment. Another wretch, named Ford, killed a policeman, in a drunken trolic, near a year ago, and he is only waiting for a sentence that he may send up an appeal. Two notorrous ringleaders of these clubs, named Houck and Morgan, who instigated the riot and murder of Friday last, and have been foremost always in these bloody brawls, have hilberty entered complete invanion, and language the injoyed complete immunity, and laughed at the im-potence of law and police.

Just imagine a chief of the "Plug Uglies" entering the peaceful domicil of a man, with a hand of cut-throats, ordering drinks for the party, and when asked for the pay he draws his pistol, shoots Lim down, and receives three cheers for the brave

A short time since, a "Plug Ugly" named Gambrill committed the crime of arson. The fact was known to a policeman uamed Benton. To any persons who may wish to avail themselves of avoid this testimony, a brother of Gambrill assassinated Benton, and silenced his tell-fale tongue in the grave forever. But a brother policeman, Robert M. Rigdon, was a witness to the killing of Benton, by Gambrill, and upon his trial testified that he was the man who fired the fatal shot, and upon his testimony the jury condemned Gambrill to death. After his condemnation, his brotherruffiaus attempted his rescue from the hands of the officers, but were foiled. But the principal witness, Rigdon, was a doomed man. He was basely assassinated ou the night of the conviction of Gambrill, in his own honse, and in the presence of his wife.

But, fortunately for the ends of justice, a policeman was near the place of murder, and as one of the assas- ans, uamed Corrie, was attempting his escape, gave chase, and though his life was in im . minent peril, being repeatedly fired at by the assassin, he succeeded in capturing him. It was then his cowered heart died within him, and like a craven, begged for dear life, and said as "God lived, he was innocent of the murder." But with white quivering lips, confessed that "MAL CROPPS DID IT." And pray who is " Mal Cropps." An old sinuer, a hardened cut throat, a red-handed "Rio Rap." Here is a picture drawn to the life, by a Washington City paper, and copied into a Baltimore paper, from which we take it:

Marion Crops is the same person as "Mallory Kropp, who headed the mob that attacked the Fourth Ward polls in this city, in June, 1857, armed with a large tomahawk, which he brandished among the terrihed voters in a manner to drive many from the ground. Under the last mentioned name he was afterwards indicted by the grand jury here for heigh ground. mentioned name he was afterwards indicted by the grandjury here, for being ongaged in the riot of that day; but, so far as we can learn, no requi-sition was erer issued by the criminal court with a view to having him brought to trial. He will be recognized by most of our citizens who were present on the occasion above referred to, who will never forget his bull head, short cropped hair, iron-tood boots, long legs, and the devilish weapon with which he clove his way among the legal voters of Washington, scattering them before him like so many afrighted sheep.

But Cropps and the Baltimere rowdies did no hold the polls in Washington City long. The marines were ordered to fire upon them, and, like a set of whipped curs, they slunk to their kennels in Baltimore. "Mal Cropps" not only led on the mob, tomahawk in hand, in the city of Washington, but on the night of the conviction of Gambrill crawled upon his hands and knees to the window of the unsuspecting Rigdon, and shot him as if he were a wild beast.

Byron once said, that,

"None were wholly bad;" but this murderous "rip rap" was "wholly bad." After he fired the fatal shot, which sent poor Rigdon to the bar of his God, look at the nnmatched andacity of this hardened villain. Rigdon's only exclamation, after he received the fatal fire, was, "Oh! God, I am shot," and fell and died immediately. Cropps forced himself, with the multiinde who througed to the house, into the presence of the dead man, and there, while coolly contemplating the work of his hands, said: "I would like to go Jack Ketch for the - - who killed hlm. Rig was a good fellow, he often lent me a quarter when I was hard np." "Great pity, shame," etc., and such like expressions. DET GOODS ROGUES .- Our readers will remem ber the arrest, a few weeks since, of a man and woman named Gannett, for shop lifting. They were discharged upon bail, and then went to Ciucinuati. A short time ago they called at the store of M. Shipley & Co., on Pearl street, between Main and Walnut, and overhauled a lot of goods, but after examing them for a while left without making a purchase. Upon putting up the goods, the clerk found that a piece of silk, containing about eighty yards, was missing. A few days ago, officer Hazen, of the Cincinnati detective force, happened to be in this city, and procured the daguerreotypes of Mr. and Mrs. Gannett. He took the portraits to Cinciunati, and on exhibiting them to Shipley & Co., they were at once recognized as copies of the persous who visited their

ACCIDENT ON THE OHIO AND MISSISSIPPI RAIL-ROAD-ONE MAN KILLED .- An accident occurred on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, about a mile east of Sholes' Station, some 40 miles from Vincennes, Tuesday evening. While on a cruise for employment, the crank pin of the wrist of the engine of the Angio-American was broken, and she was disabled. She hoisted a signal of distress, and the America came to her assistance. For this service her master and owners claimed $25,000 salvage. The owners of the Angio-American deposited $25 in Court as a reasonable compensation.—The district court thought the case presented hut one element necessary to a claim for salvage, and, as the sum deposited was three times the amount of ordinary towage, gave judgment for the def-indants, which the circuit court affirmed.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The legislature of Kansas was required to fix a permanent seat of government before any congressional appropriation for the erection of public buildings could be available. The seat of government was fixed in 1855, at Lecompton, and the money expended for that purpose. In April last the legislature passed a law over the Governor's vale changing the ed a law over the Governor's veto, changing the seat to Minnesota. At the request of Gov. For the reasons above stated, the money having been thus conditionally appropriated and expended, the change would be violative of the act of Congress and a fraud upon the United States.

The President has appointed Thomas Miller coatmaster at Columbus, Ohio, in place of Sam-nel Medary, who resigned in order to fill the post of Governor of Kansas. Mr. Miller was Mr. Medary's immediate predecessor in the former office. All the government offices will be closed to-morrow, it being Thanksgiving day.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 2 There has been considerable activity in the marke this week in regard to groceries and provisions, hu bread-tuffs were duil, though sustained with very mea gre supplies of grain. This has materially enhanced prices, hut increased receipts would cause an immediate decline of most articles of produce. The pork packing season is now under full swsy, and all our packers are actively engaged, with the sisughter thus far this season of nearly $0,000 hogs. This is far ahead of foreign and domestic from 18 to 25 cents. Stock he slaughter up to the same period last year, and in fact, of any previous year, the packing season having commenced much earlier this season, with favorable weather. The receipts continue heavy—nearly 10,000 per day—chiefly by the railroads, and the hogs are killed almost as fast as they arrive, thus saving the ad ditional expense of feeding. Prices are quite firm, with but moderate sales of fair to heavy hogs at $6 25 to $6 50 net. The receipts are nearly, if not quite all, the hogs which have been previously contracted for and but very few are pressing on the market. The Cincinnati market Tuesday evening, as we learn by ou dispatches, closed heavy, with sales, however, during the day, of 7,000 hogs, at prices ranging from $6 25 to $6 So. The receipts of the week were 65,000 head. The total receipts at that piace, up to Menday night, were

In the adjoining counties we hear of heavy contract on private terms, the prices supposed to he fully 6%c following range of prices to butchers at the stock net-while at Owenshoro buyers were active at 434c gross, for hogs weighing 200 pounds and upwards. At Henderson the packing would fall far short of the previous year, with sales of heavy hogs at 6%c net. In Indlana fat hogs are reported rather esarce, with sales brisk at Lafayette on the 19th at 6c, and the slaughte progressing rapidly. One of our city packers will slaughter upwards of 20,000 hogs in Nashville, Tenn the product to be controlled here. At Chicago the re celpts by railroad were heavy, with heavy supplies dressed hogs, and prices ranged from $4 25 to $4

The weather has con'inued wet, stormy, snowy, windy cloudy, and chilly all the time, with the ground firs overed with snow, then mud, with a little rain at inter als, making the roads and thorough fares almost impaging ible. The river has been gradually receding for severa days, but stationary to-day, with only a moderate siage f water, and the regular packets can take but small lots of freight on the water, which causes shipments t he light, and the rates maintained.

The foliawing is from the Cincinnati Commercial yesterday:

The sales reported are not considered a reliable exposition of thereal condition of the market, but is believed to have been effected entirely by outsiders. In corroboration of this, the stock on the market is large, and hut few of the experience poscers are disposed take the bait. Frem $6 to $6.40 or $6.50 would be taken as a fair operating standard of price; beyond these the most sanguine are not disposed to go, even though the short crop argument should be fully sustained by the facts when developed. As it is, prohabilities are that this week's operations will put the business on listme level.
